

Legal Statement of Facts

sanskritiias.com/pt-cards/legal-statement-of-facts-49

- A legal statement of facts is a valid document in the eyes of the law. It sets its focus on a particular situation and backs the statement using facts.
- A statement of facts that conveys to the court all they need to know about the case in a concise and logical manner. Essentially, this is a document that logically outlines the facts, and demonstrates the client's position. A judge should be familiar with the particular case so that the court to see things in client's favour.
- In its respective details Date, subject of matter, material facts, evidence to support the facts, names of the people involved, signature if possible etc. are included.
- The statement of facts is persuasive and designed to assist the court in seeing client's position. So it is important that the document be direct, to the point, brief, and easy to comprehend and it should be an honest and actual account of the events involved.
